

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

Apply by
Jan 26

TRANSBOUNDARY DISEASE RISK COMMUNICATION AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT (RCCE) USING A ONE HEALTH APPROACH

VIRTUAL PREREQUISITES

Dates: 22nd January – 19th February, 2024

Required courses:

- RCCE 01: Fundamentals of One Health and One Health Approach
 - RCCE 02: The African People, their Culture and how it relates to One Health
 - RCCE 03: Working With communities effectively in a Multidisciplinary manner
 - RCCE 04: How to effectively communicate and mitigate disease risk among stakeholders Disease Specific Modules Delivered Concurrently
- Electives (choose one):

- RCCE 05: How to prevent and control rabies as a Multidisciplinary professional
- RCCE 06: How to prevent and control rabies as a Non-Health Professional
- RCCE 07: The art and practice of COVID-19 prevention and control using a One Health approach

Cost is included in experiential training tuition.

EXPERIENTIAL TRAINING

DRC/Uganda

Arua Cross Border Site

31st March – 14th April 2024

Cameroon

Yaoundé Site

5th May – 18th May 2024

Tanzania

Kilosa and Kisarawe Sites

5th May – 18th May 2024

Cost:

$2,500 for African citizens
$3,500 for non-African citizens
pricing excludes flights

CAPSTONE PROJECT

Participants will be required to complete a capstone project under the mentorship of an in-service professional. Participants may be paired with an AFROHUN faculty member or other AFROHUN affiliate. Participants may also choose to be mentored by an in-service professional of their choosing. Capstone projects should focus on real world solutions to community problems using the One Health approach.

Dates: 12 weeks following the field experience

Please visit our website for more information. Undergraduate, graduate, and in-service professionals welcome. Applications due 26th January 2024.

Visit academy.afrohun.org
for more information

admin@afrohun-onehealthacademy.ac